Seventh. That the following named persons have received a majority of the votes cast by the qualified electors of their respective Congressional districts, as established by an ordinance of the Convention adopted on the 8th day of March, 1868, and are entitled to certificates of election as members of the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States for the said Districts as herein specified:

First Congressional District—John R French.

Second Congressional District—David Heaton.

Third Congressional District—Oliver H Dockery.

Fourth Congressional District—John T Deweese.

Fifth Congressional District—Israel G Lash.

Sixth Congressional District—Nathaniel Boyden.

Seventh Congressional District—Alexander H Jones.

The certificates of election will be sent direct to the State executive and judicial officers, and to the members elect of the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States; but for convenience and safety of transmission, the certificates for the members elect of the General Assembly will be sent to the Commanding Officer Post of Raleigh, for delivery upon application by the persons who are entitled to receive them.

For like reasons, the certificates for the county offices will be sent to the Commanding Officers of Posts for the counties within their jurisdiction, for delivery or transmittal to the persons who are entitled to receive them.

A certified abstract of the returns made by the election officers, will be prepared and deposited in the office of the Secretary of State for the State of North Carolina.

Under the provisions of the Constitution the General Assembly of the State elected thereunder, "shall meet on the fifteenth day after the approval thereof (the Constitution) by the Congress of the United States, if it fall not on Sunday, but if it should so fall, then on the next day thereafter." (Article II, Section 29.)

The officers of the Executive Department of the State, "first elected, shall assume their duties ten days after the approval of this Constitution by the Congress of the United States." (Article III, Section 1.)

The term of office of all officers of the Judicial Department "shall begin upon the approval of this Constitution by the Congress of the United States." Article IV, Section 32.)

The county officers provided for and elected "shall enter upon their duties ten days after the approval of this Constitution by the Congress of the United States." (Article VII, Section 10.)

But in order that there may be no confusion, delay, or failure in the administration of justice or other governmental functions, and to ensure the safety of public property, the Solicitor of Judicial Circuits, clerks of courts, sheriffs, coroners, and other executive officers charged with active administration duties, or with the care of public records, or the custody of public moneys or public property, will not be relieved from responsibility for the due discharge of the duties of their offices, until their successors are duly qualified.

It is made the duty of Commanders of Posts, within the limits of their respective jurisdictions to see that the officers elect who are able to qualify under the Constitution and laws of the United States, and the Constitution and laws of the State, and have so qualified, are duly installed in the offices to which they have been elected and as above prescribed.

Under the requirements of the ninth section of the law of July 23, 1867, amendatory to the law of March 2, 1867, "to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," the officers elect, both of the legislative and executive departments, will before entering upon the discharge of the duties of their offices, take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by the law of July 2, 1861, "to prescribe an oath of office and for other purposes." This oath will be taken in duplicate; one to be filed in the office of the Secretary of State for the State of North Carolina, and the other to be forwarded to District Headquarters.

If any of the State officers elected under the new Constitution are disqualified by the third section of the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States, known as Article XIV, or are unable to take the oath prescribed by the law of July 2, 1862, they will not be allowed to discharge any official functions until the disability has been removed by the Congress of the United States, or unless the oath of office required by the ninth Section of the above cited law, shall have previously been dispensed with by law, or unless the said ninth section shall have become inoperative by the fact that the people of the State have been declared by law to be entitled to representation in the Congress of the United States.

The Republican Platform.—In this issue will be found the Republican platform which has been unanimously agreed upon at the Chicago Convention, held last week. Harmony and good feeling characterized the Convention.

Gen. Ulysses S. Grant, of Illinois, was nominated for President, and Schuyler Colfax, of Indiana, for Vice President.

PUBLIC EXECUTION.

The execution of Reuben Wright, who, together with a colored female accomplice, was tried and convicted of murder, at Fall term of Stokes Superior Court, took place near Danbury, on Thursday, of last week. The execution of the colored woman, we learn, has been postponed on account of evidence in another case.

We understand there were upwards of two thousand persons present at the execution.

The Vote on Constitutions.

Gen. Grant sent a communication to Congress, last week, giving the vote in the Southern States for and against the new Constitutions. The figures are stated thus:

	For	Against.
North Carolina,	92,000	71,820
South Carolina,	70,758	27,288
Georgia,	89,607	61,309
Louisiana,	66,152	49,739
Alabama,	0,807	10,000

Locusts.—The Salisbury North State says, the seventeen year locusts have made their appearance in that vicinity.

Rough and Ready Fire Company No 1.

This new organization appeared in our streets for the first time on Saturday last, making a gay and handsome appearance in their appropriate uniform.

The uniform consists of a red shirt, trimmed with a black collar and a band running from the shoulder to the side, ornamented with white buttons; black pants, secured by a leather belt, upon which the name of the company is to be placed.

Altogether, the appearance and activity of the Company was highly creditable, and we hope to see their numbers largely increased at the next parade.

There are two large engines, besides several smaller ones, a lot of hose, hooks, ladders, &c., in fact almost everything to make one or more efficient Companies; and we have no doubt, with the proper encouragement, our young men would gladly do all in their power towards manning the engines, and by frequent parades make themselves as efficient as possible.

The young men have shown a disposition to do something for the public good, and we hope our citizens will extend to them due encouragement.

The following is the roll of the company:

E. A. Vogler President.
Dr. T. F. Keehln, Vice President.
Chas. Brietz, Treasurer.
J. Blickenderfer, Chief Engineer.
W. T. Vogler, 1st Asst. "

Harper, for June, contains a series of illustrated articles, prominent among which is "Look Out Mountain, and how we won it." Its other articles are of an eclectic nature and very readable. In short it is a capital number.

The Atlantic for June opens with an article on "Beauty of Trees," which should be read by all lovers of nature. Articles on the "Talmud," Abyssinia and King Theodore, Discovery of Etherization and the usual reviews, making up an excellent number.

The Land We Love, is one of the most readable Magazines on our table. The June number is at hand and the contents varied and of a high order of merit. Demorest's Young America, is decidedly the most amusing and instructive little monthly for Young Folks that we have ever seen. Its colored "transformation pictures" are alone worth the money.

New Eclectic.—This new candidate for popular favor, bids fair to lead in the Southern Magazines. Its pages teem with the cream of Foreign Literature, selected with an eye to encourage a higher standard of popular reading. We would like to see it meet with success.

Discovery of a Mail Robbery.—For some months past the Department at Washington, has been cognizant of the fact that the mails on the Potomac boat, on the route between this point and Washington, were being robbed. Detectives were set to work, who succeeded in ferreting out, one night last week, the detective secreting himself in a room adjoining the postal room.

A young man named Wm. J. Lee, a clerk of the General Post office, employed as one of postal clerks to take charge and assort the mails on the boats between Washington and Acquia Creek, proved the guilty one. He was arrested and confessed his guilt.

Young Lee was not long since employed in running as far as this point, and for a while upon the Wilmington road. His robberies are thought to have amounted to a good deal.—Weldon News.

The new post office directory, recently published, shows that there are 25,715 post-offices in the United States. Of the whole number, 1,226 are money order offices, and about the 1st of June 300 more of this class will be opened.

There are 41,000 officers in the United States civil government and their salaries amount to 21,000,000 annually.

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

FROM WASHINGTON——IMPEACHMENT A FAILURE—THE COURT ADJOURNED.

Sine die.

Washington, May 26, M.

House.—The Wolley affair was filibustered to the hour for Court.

The Court met. A motion to adjourn to June 23rd, was lost. The Court proceeded to vote on the Articles and defeated the Second and Third, by the same vote as on the Eleventh, 35 to 19. The vote is still progressing.

Later.

The vote on the Second Article: Guilty 35; not guilty 19.

The vote on the Third Article; Guilty 35; not guilty 19.

The Court then adjourned sine die.

New York, May 26, P. M.

Mayor Hoffman has received a letter from Rockingham, North Carolina, asking assistance for anticipated distress. The demand for labor don't equal the supply. The Mayor will receive contributions.

FROM RICHMOND.

Richmond, May 26, P. M.

Chief Justice Chase having assigned to June 3rd as the day of commencement of the Davis trial, if impeachment had been finished by that time, it is understood, today, that the trial will certainly take place then.

MARKETS.

New York, May 26, P. M.

Cotton easier—more doing. Sales 14,000 bales at 30 to 30½, chiefly at 30.

House.—The Speaker announced that the functions of the Managers had ceased.

A resolution continuing them as a Committee to continue the corruption investigations, prevailed.

A protest that the Committee of Investigation in which the minority was unrepresented was unparliamentary, was overruled by the Speaker. The House controlled, and could entrust investigation to whom it pleased.

A motion to add two members who had voted against impeachment, was tabled on Butler's motion—50 to 51.

Wooley was ordered into close confinement in the Capitol until he purges himself of contempt, by answering such questions as the Committee propound.

On the 20th, no business in either House of Congress.

President Johnson was in a Masonic procession, on foot.

On the 22d, the Constitutions of North Carolina, Louisiana and Georgia were referred to the Senate Judiciary Committee.

Impeachment seems not to be given up yet. A committee has been appointed to investigate attempts and influence to intimidate members of the court of impeachment. The following proceedings were had, in the premises, on the 22d:—

Chas. W. Wooley, having testified before the Managers, that he spent no money to influence impeachment, declines answering questions regarding his investments.

Edward Cooper testified that he was approached by a brother-in-law and friend of Senator Pomeroy, proposing for $40,000 to secure five votes for acquittal, Senators Morton and Nye being on the list.

Grant and Colfax were serenaded at night, when Grant made the following speech to the serenaders:—

Gentlemen: Being unaccustomed to public speaking, and without any desire to cultivate that power, it is impossible for me to find appropriate language to thank you for this demonstration. All that I can say is, that to whatever position I may be called, I shall try to discharge its duties with fidelity and honesty. Of my rectitude in the performance of public duties, you will have to judge for yourselves by my record before you."

On the 23d, Congress not in session.

The following are among the members of the National Executive Committee: Alabama, Stone; Arkansas, Rice; Florida, Rowan; Georgia, Caldwell; Louisana, Southwood; Mississippi, Fish; North Carolina, Sloan; South Carolina, Jencks; Tennessee, Stokes; Texas, Burke; Virginia, Cares; West Virginia, Kurns.

Washington dates of the 25th, state that the Tax Bill was made the special order for Wednesday.

A Resolution passed bringing Chas W. Wooley to the bar of the House for contempt.

The Managers supported the resolution by a report, reading which required over an hour, with copies of private telegrams and evidence mainly that of Thurlow Weed, showing that the scheme of buying votes for acquittal was canvassed in New York, and that suspicious telegrams and persons passed between the parties here and in New York. Intimate relations were also shown to exist between the counsel and friends of the President, and the party who canvassed the purchase of votes.

In New York the report claims that the Managers have other evidence, but at present they only feel justified in presenting such as will justify the arrest of Wooley.

Adjourned.

Stevens was not in the House to-day.

Republican Senators will have a caucus to-morrow morning to arrange the impeachment programme.

Robbery.—On the 22d inst., some robbers seized the engine between Louisville and Cincinnati, and, detaching the express car, left the balance of the train. They threw out the Express Messenger, and robbed three safes. Loss unknown. The engine was found on the track, this morning, deserted.

Land Sinks.—A despatch from Lake City, Florida, says that last week, nearly two acres on a farm in Hamilton County, suddenly sank to a depth of fifty feet from the surface—the surrounding land filling with water, and submerging the tops of the tallest trees. The ground is still sinking and now covers four acres. The streams and creeks in the surrounding country loosed themselves, which forced an outlet in this way.

These sinks have occurred before, but this is the largest and deepest known.

Republican Platform.

The National Republican Party of the United States assembled in National Convention in the city of Chicago, on the 20th day of May, 1868, make the following declaration of principles.

First—We congratulate the country on the assured success of the reconstruction policy of Congress as evinced by the adoption in the majority of the States lately in rebellion of constitutions securing equal civil and political rights to all; and it is the duty of the government to sustain those institutions and to prevent the people of those States from being remitted to a state of anarchy. (Cheers.)

Second—The guarantee by Congress of equal suffrage to all loyal men at the South was demanded by every consideration of public safety, of gratitude and of justice, and must be maintained while the question of suffrage in all the loyal States properly belongs to the people of those States.—(Cheers.)

Third—We denounce all forms of repudiation as a national crime—(prolonged cheers)—and the national honor requires the payment of the public indebtedness in the utmost good faith to all creditors at home and abroad, not only according to the letter, but the spirit of the laws under which it was contracted. (Applause.)

Fourth—It is due to the labor of the nation that taxation should be equalized and reduced as rapidly as the natural faith will permit.

Fifth—The national debt contracted as it has been, for the preservation of the Union for all time to come, should be extended over a fair period for redemption; and it is the duty of Congress to reduce the rate of interest thereon whenever it can be honestly done.

Sixth—That the best policy to diminish our burden of debt is to so improve our credit that capitalists will seek to loan us money at lower rates of interest than we now pay and must continue to pay so long as repudiation, partial or total open or covert, is threatened or suspected.

Seventh—The government of the United States should be administered with the strictest economy, and the corruptions which have been so shamefully nursed and fostered by Andrew Johnson call loudly for radical reform.

Eighth—We profoundly deplore the untimely and tragical death of Abraham Lincoln and regret the accession of Andrew Johnson to the Presidency, who has acted treacherously to the people who elected him and the cause he was pledged to support; who has usurped high legislative and judicial functions; who has refused to execute the laws; who has used his high office to ignore and violate the laws, who has employed his executive powers to render insecure the property, the peace, liberty and life of the citizens; who has abused the pardoning powers, who has denounced the National Legislature as unconstitutional; who has persistantly and corruptly resisted by every measure in his power every proper attempt at the reconstruction of the States lately in rebellion; who has perverted the public patronage into an engine of wholesale corruption, and who has been justly impeached for high crime and misdemeanors and properly pronounced guilty thereof by the vote of thirty-five Senators.

Ninth—The doctrine of Great Britain and other European powers, that because a man is once a subject he is always so, must be resisted at every hazard by the United States, as a relic of the feudal times, not authorized by the law of nations and at war with our national honor and independence. Naturalized citizens are entitled to be protected in all their rights of citizenship as though they were native born; and no citizen of the United States, native or naturalized, must be liable to arrest and imprisonment by any foreign power, for acts done or words spoken in this country; and if so arrested and imprisoned it is the duty of the government to interfere in his behalf.

Tenth—Of all who were faithful in the trials of the late war there were none entitled to more especial honor than the brave soldiers and seamen who endured the hardships of campaign and cruise and imperilled their lives in the service of their country; the bounties and pensions provided by the laws for those brave defenders of the nation are obligations never to be forgotten; the widows and orphans of the gallant dead are the wards of the people—a sacred legacy bequeathed to the nation's protecting care.

Eleventh—Foreign emigration, which in the past has added so much to the wealth, development and resources and increase of power to this nation, the asylum of the oppressed of all nations, should be fostered and encouraged by a liberal and just policy.

Twelfth—This Convention declares itself in sympathy with all the oppressed people which are struggling for their rights.

A Bill to admit the States of North Carolina, South Carolina, Louisiana, Georgia, and Alabama, to Representation in Congress.

Whereas the people of North Carolina, South Carolina, Louisiana, Georgia, and Alabama have in pursuance of the provisions of an article entitled "An act for the more efficient government of the rebel States," passed March second, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven and the acts supplementary thereto, framed constitutions of State government which are republican in form; and have adopted said constitutions by large majorities of the votes cast at the elections held for the ratification or rejection of the same: Therefore

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the State of North Carolina, South Carolina, Louisiana, Georgia, and Alabama shall be entitled and admitted to representation in Congress as States of the Union when the Legislatures of said States respectively shall have duly ratified the amendment to the Constitution of the United States proposed by the Thirty-ninth Congress, and known as article fourteen, upon the following fundamental conditions: That the constitution of said states shall never be amended or changed so as to discriminate in favor of or against any citizen or class of citizens of the United States in their right to vote who are now entitled to vote by said constitutions respectively, except as a punishment for such crimes as are now felonies at common law, whereof they shall have been duly convicted; and no person shall ever be held to service or labor as a punishment for crime in said States except by public officers charged with the custody of convicts by the laws thereof; and that so much of the seventeenth section of the fifth article of the Constitution of the State of Georgia as gives authority to Legislatures or courts to repudiate debts contracted prior to the 1st day of June, 1865, and similar provisions in all other of the Constitutions mentioned in this bill, shall be null and void as against all men who were loyal during the whole time of the rebellion, and who, during that time, supported the Union, and they shall have the same right in the Union, and they shall have the same rights in the courts and elsewhere as if no rebellion had ever existed.

Section 2. Be it further enacted, That if the day fixed for the meeting of the Legislature of either of said States by the constitutions thereof shall have passed before the passage of this act, such Legislature may be convened within thirty days after the passage of this act by the president of the convention which framed the constitution of such State.

Section 3. And be it further enacted, That the first section of this act shall take effect when the President of the United States shall officially proclaim the due ratification by the Legislatures of said States respectively of article fourteen of the amendment of the Constitution of the United States proposed by the Thirty-ninth Congress; and it is hereby made the duty of the President, within ten days after receiving official information of the ratification of said amendment by the Legislature of either of said States, to issue a proclamation announcing that fact.

DRIED FRUIT.—Within the last few years this business has increased until it has become in many sections, a leading branch of trade, and has been found to be very profitable. The high tax imposed upon distillation of fruit has had a tendency to increase this business. Again, the work is easy—the greater part of it being done by women and children.

Since this is comparatively a new business in many sections, and one that should be increased, we propose giving a few practical suggestions as to the best plan of drying, packing, shipping, etc. We begin with PEELED PEACHES.—To make those the most saleable, the fruit should be taken from the trees before it becomes perfectly ripe and mellow—just as soon as they begin to "blush,"—unless this is done they will dry dark in color, which is the great objection, and leaves them always without a quotable price. They should be sliced as fine as a little care and attention will allow. Quarters are considered a large size for peeled peaches, and consequently not as saleable as if sliced finer.

Unpeeled Peaches should also be selected from fruit not too ripe on the trees. They should be cut into halves only, as quarters and mixed never bring as good a price while they are really more trouble to prepare. It is always best to select the largest peaches for good "unpeeled halves."

DRIED APPLES.—Select sound fruit, not too ripe. Be careful to pare them clean. Let there be no specks of the skin on any part, and above all, be sure that they are well cored. Dried apples coming to market with specks of skin, coars and seed still on never meet ready sale at market price. "Sliced" apples always pay for the additional trouble; but where this is not done, let the above, as to cleanliness, be observed. This done and dried of a bright color, they will always sell readily for a good price.

Dried Cherries, with seeds in, always sell. They should be carefully picked when ripe, thoroughly dried, and kept as clean as possible. "Seedless" cherries belong to the most fancy of domestic dried fruit, and always find a ready market at good prices. They require to be carefully dried without being burned, and packed in their natural state. If mixed with molasses or "doctored" in any way, it is detected at once, and have to be sold at very reduced prices.

Dried Plums should be handled in the same manner as cherries.

Dried Blackberries have recently become quite a staple, and in many sections the best paying crop that grows. When ripe they should be nicely dried (not burned) before packing. If packed before thoroughly dried they breed worms, become mouldy, and lead to general dissatisfaction.

Dried Raspberries always bring a better price than blackberries, and should be handled the same way.

Elderberries are not worth the trouble of drying and shipping.

Quinces and Pears, cut fine, thoroughly peeled and coared nice, bring fair prices.

The above, we think, affords the main ideas as to curing the different fruits. We now come to a most important instruction for shippers, packers and buyers, which is the grading and packing of the different descriptions.

Never mix different qualities in the same packages, as it is always discovered, and the price will be based upon the poorest quantity in the barrel or bag. Barrels are much preferable to bags for shipping. Let there be a distinguishing mark upon each package of the different grades. Let all barrels be carefully and correctly tared, with each tare marked on side of barrel, as well as on the head. If the above directions are closely followed, the fruit will class with the best grades and the increase in price over poor, mixed and carelessly packed fruit will amply pay for the extra trouble. This applies to almost everything that is sent to market. It matters not how dull an article may be, when of good quality and in good order, it will not not fail to bring highest market prices. Then remember this, and pack all goods in neat order; mark plain directions on every package with the name of article, weight, tare or count, and forward invoice of what, how and when shipments are made.

We beg to state that we shall endeavor to make a speciality of selling all kinds of dried fruit during the coming season, and claim that our advantages are equal to any other market; but if desired we will ship to Liverpool, London, or elsewhere.

We will furnish, at manufacturers' prices, any or all of the latest and best improved peelers.

All letters of inquiry will be promptly answered, and the best possible information furnished.

CLEVELAND.—The Conservative majority in Cleveland county has been whittled down to 222. We are glad to note, however, that Capt. Plato Durham is elected from that county to the Legislature. His course in the Convention endeared him to the true white men of North Carolina.—Wilmington Star.

Mr. Durham's course in the Convention caused the Radicals and Republicans to make the Constitution a great deal worse than they were at first disposed to do. In no instance did he influence the Convention for good, simply because he was too violent and factious. A perminent Republican told us that Mr. Durham was useful to the Republican party in the Convention by keeping that party united. He no doubt aimed to do right, but certainly he is too inexperienced and hasty to be a party leader. He may be competent to know how to vote right, but he is not capable of being placed in the lead. In these times we want prudent, careful men for leaders.—Charlotte Democrat.

If a man in Wisconsin plants a row of trees along the road, he is exempt from working on the road; whoever hurts one of these little ones is fined $5; and the State Horticultural Society offers a premium of $100 for the best ten acres of forest trees, and $50 for the second best.

Articles of Impeachment.

Below will be found the Articles of Impeachment:

Article I. That the President issued an order to remove Secretary Stanton, with intent to violate the Tenure of Office act.

Article II. That he by letter authorized Lorenzo Thomas to act as Secretary of War, ad interim, when there was no vacancy in that office, with intent to violate the same act.

Article III. That he so authorized Thomas to act as Secretary, with the intent to violate the Constitution of the United States.

Article IV. That he conspired with Lorenzo Thomas and others, by intimidations and threats to hinder Mr. Stanton from holding his office as Secretary of War, thus violating the Constitution and the conspiracy act of July 31st, 1861, thus committing a high crime in office.

Article V. That he conspired with Lorenzo Thomas and other persons unknown to prevent the execution of the Tenure-of-office Act, and in pursuance of this conspiracy, attempted to prevent Mr. Stanton from holding his office of Secretary of War; thus committing a high misdemeanor in office.

Article VI. That he conspired with Lorenzo Thomas to seize by force the War Department, contrary to the conspiracy act, and with intent to violate the Tenure-of-office act, thus committing a high crime in office.

Article VII. That he conspired with Lorenzo Thomas to seize by force the War Department, with intent to violate the Tenure-of-office act, thus committing a high misdemeanor in office.

Article VIII. That he delivered to Lorenzo Thomas a letter of authority to act as Secretary of War ad interim, with intent unlawfully to control the military appropriations, in violation of the Constitution and of the Tenure-of-office act; and so committing a high misdemeanor in office.

Article IX. That on February 22d, last, he instructed Major General Emory that part of the Appropriation Act of March 2, 1867, which provides that all orders of the President and War Department relating to military operations shall be issued through the General of the army was unconstitutional, and tried to induce Emory to violate it, by receiving orders direct from the President, with the further intent to prevent the execution of the Tenure-of-office Act, and to prevent Mr Stanton from holding the office of Secretary of War.

Article X. That he delivered inflamatory and scandalous harangues, at various times, to bring contempt upon Congress. In this charge, specification first quotes a speech at Washington, August 18th, 1866; about a body "hanging on the verge of the Government."

Specification second: The Cleaveland speech of September 3d, 1866—"Your Congress that is trying to break up the Government, etc."

Specification third: "The St. Louis speech of September 8, 1866—"If I have played the Judas, who has been my Christ that I have played the Judas with? Was it Thad Stevens? Was it Wendell Phillips, &c?"

These speeches are charged as a high misdemeanor in office.

Article IX. That he declared in a public speech in Washington, August 18, 1866, that the Thirty-ninth Congress was not a Constitutional Congress of the United States, but a Congress of part of the States; thus denying the validity of their legislation, except so far as he chose to approve it; and in pursuance of this declaration, attempted to prevent the execution of the Tenure-of-office Act, by unlawfully contriving means of preventing Edwin M Stanton from resuming the office of Secretary of War, when the Senate had refused to concur in his suspension; and, also, attempted to prevent the execution of the Appropriation Act of March 2, 1867, (as in article 9,) and, also, of the act of March 2, 1867, "for the more efficient government of the rebel States," thus committing a high misdemeanor in office.

A WONDERFUL CITY.—One of the most wonderful cities in the world is Bankok, the capital of Siam. On either side of the wide majestic stream moored in regular streets and alleys, extending as far as the eye can reach are upwards of seventy thousand neat little houses floating on a compact raft of bamboos; and the whole intermediate space of the river is one dense mass of ship junks, and boats of every concevable shape, color and size.

AGENTS WANTED FOR

THE OFFICIAL HISTORY OF THE WAR,

Its Causes, Character, Conduct and Results.

By HON. ALEXANDER H. STEPHENS.

A Book for all Sections and all Parties.

This great work presents the only complete and impartial analysis of the causes of the War yet published, and gives those interior lights and shadows of the great conflict only known to those high officers who watched the flood-tide of revolution from its fountain springs, and were so accessible to Mr. Stephens from his position as second officer of the Confederacy.

To a public that has been surfeited with APPARENTLY SIMILAR PRODUCTIONS, we promise a change of fare, both agreeable and salutary, and an intellectual treat of the highest order. The great American War has AT LAST found a historian worthy of its importance, and at whose hands it will receive that moderate, candid and impartial treatment with truth and justice so urgently demand.

The intense desire everywhere manifested to obtain this work, its Official character and ready sale, combined with an increased commission, make it the best subscription book ever published.

One Agent in Easton, Pa., reports 72 subscribers in three days.

One in Boston, Mass., 103 in four days.

One in Memphis, Tenn., 106 in five days.

Send for Circulars and see our terms, and a full description of the work, with Press notices of advance sheets, &c.

FARMERS, READ!

ALL KINDS OF

AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS.

—:o:—

I HAVE the Agency from various Manufacturers of Agricultural Implements, in the States of North Carolina, Virginia, Maryland, Pennsylvania, New York and Ohio, for the following:

Horse Powers, Wheat Threshers and Cleaners, Mowing Machines, Mowers and Reapers, Cider Mills, Smut Machines, Wheat Fans, Fodder Cutters, Corn Shellers, Sorgo Mills, Ploughs, Harrows, Horserakes, Cultivators, Wheat Drills, &c., &c., &c.

BUCKEYE REAPER AND MOWER.

The Buckeye Reaper and Mower that I exhibited and sold last season has been still further improved since last year, and I have the Agency for the Counties of Forsyth, Stokes, Surry and Yadkin.

Farmers in general—and every where,
Who want a Reaper or Mower,
Will look for one with a history fair,
That does its work well, and with little repair,
Can be kept in good running order.

They want a machine that's been thoroughly tried
In all kinds of grass and of grain,
On the up-lands and low-lands, and on the hillside,
Where horses may walk and the driver may ride,
And the work shall be always the same.

The BUCKEYE machine has met this demand,
So say the thousand who [illegible] this land
Its record's been known, and its merits well scanned.
As proof against all who abuse it.

IMPROVED CIDER MILL.

I shall have three different kinds of Cider Mills, and am already receiving orders for the coming season. I have the agency for the Counties of Forsyth, Surry, Stokes and Yadkin.

Three Different Kinds of WHEAT THRESHERS and CLEANERS.

THE WEEKLY SUN.

—:o:—

"THE CIRCULATION OF THE WEEKLY SUN," always very large, has of late so increased that it may be called universal. It is shedding its light for all, in all sections—North, South, East and West. Its intercourse with the South, which was necessarily interrupted during the war, has been again resumed, and the evidences of public appreciation from that quarter are multiplying every day. When honest efforts are put forth, as in the "Weekly Sun," to meet the demand for a reliable weekly record of events and an entertaining vehicle of light literature, which while it instructs and pleases, aims to promote virtue as well as intelligence, and to exclude every line of an impure and immoral tendency, it is cheering to receive such evidences of public appreciation as are coming to us from all parts of the country.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

The "WEEKLY SUN" is published every Saturday at the following exceedingly low rates to individuals and clubs when sent from one Post Office. The money, in all cases, to be remitted in advance.

For one copy for one year,	$1 50
Club of six copies, one year,	8 00
Club of twelve copies, one year,	15 00
Club of fifteen copies, one year,	18 00
Club of twenty copies, one year,	22 00
Club of twenty-five copies, one year.	25 00

Postmasters will always act as agents for persons in the neighborhood of their respective offices, and forward orders and cash under the regular authority of the Department. The safest mode in remitting subscriptions is by draft or Post Office Order. Address

STAY LAW.

AN ORDINANCE RESPECTING THE JURISDICTION OF THE COURTS OF THIS STATE.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the people of North Carolina in Convention assembled, That sections 1 and 2 of the ordinance of the Convention adopted June 23rd 1866, entitled "An Ordinance to change the jurisdiction of the Courts and the rules of pleading therein," be and are hereby repealed.

Sec. 2. Be it further ordained, That section 3 of the above entitled Ordinance be amended to read as follows: Sec. 3. That all actions of debt, covenant, asumpsit, and account now pending in the Superior Courts, shall be continued to Spring Term, 1869; and that the several Superior Courts at the Spring Term thereof only, unless otherwise herein provided, shall have exclusive original jurisdiction of all such causes of action except where jurisdiction has been or shall be given to a Justice of the Peace by the Constitution or Laws of North Carolina. Should the defendant at the Spring Term, 1869, on writs which shall be returned to that Term or in any suit, for the above causes of action then pending in the Superior Court, pay or confess judgment to the plaintiff for one-tenth of the debt and demand (principal and interest) and all costs to that time, he shall be allowed until the next Spring Term to plead. At the said Spring Term, should the defendant pay to the plaintiff or confess judgment for one-fifth of the residue of the debt or demand, he shall be allowed until the succeeding Spring Term to plead. At the said Spring Term the plaintiff shall have judgment for the residue o his debt or demand: Provided, however, That the plaintiff, if required, shall file his debt or demand in writing, and if the defendant shall make oath that the whole or any part thereof is not justly due, or that he has a counter demand, all of which shall be particularly set forth by affidavit, then the defendant shall only pay the instalment required of what he admits to be due, and the court shall order a jury at the same or some subsequent Term to try the matters in dispute between the parties, and at the next Spring Term the defendant shall be allowed to plead only upon paying or confessing judgment for one-fifth of the residue of the admitted amount and whatever the jury finds him indebted over and above the same: Provided, further, That should the defendant fail to pay or confess judgment for the first or any subsequent installment, then, and in that case, the plaintiff shall be entitled to proceed to judgment and execution for such installment, unless the defendant shall put in pleas, in which case the suit shall proceed according to the Court in 1860: Provided, further, That by consent of the plaintiff, the defendant at any Term of the Court may confess judgment for a stipulated sum in full and final discharge of all further demand or liability upon such claim.

Sec. 3. Be it further enacted, That section 10 of the above recited act shall be amended to read as follows: Sec. 10. That executions on judgments in actions of debt, assumpsit, covenant or account, or decrees for money demands in Equity, which have been or shall be issued on judgment or decrees heretofore obtained, shall be levied on the property of the defendant and returned without sale: Provided such return shall not prejudice any lien the plaintiff may acquire or then have by virtue of said fi fa or venditioni exponas. At Spring Term, 1869, execution on all such judgments or decrees shall issue for only one-tenth the amount then due; at Spring Term 1870, for one-fifth of the residue; at Spring Term; 1871 for one-half of the residue; and at Spring Term 1872 for the balance of the debt; and no execution shall issue from the Fall Term on any such judgment or decree except by consent of the defendant. That no mortgagee or trustee, shall expose to sale the property conveyed in such mortgage or trust, or at that time pay one-tenth of the debts mentioned, the sale shall be postponed to the first of March, 1870; at that time should the mortgagor or trustor pay one-fifth of the residue, the sale shall be postponed to the first of March, 1871; at that time, should the trustor or mortgagor pay one-half of the residue, the sale shall be postponed to first of March, 1872; and at that time the trustee or mortgagee shall sell the property or so much of it as will realize the balance of the debt: Provided, however, That should the trustor or mortgagor fail to pay the first or any subsequent installment, then, and in that case the trustee or mortgagor shall sell at six monihs credit, so much of the property conveyed as will realize such installment.

Sec. 4. Be it further ordained, That section 11 of the above entitled act be amended to read as follows: That no warrants before Justices of the Peace shall be issued or be returnable until January 1st. 1869. Should the defendant upon such return pay to the plaintiff, or to the collecting officer, for his use, or confess judgment before the magistrate for one-tenth of the debt and demand, (principal and interest) he shall be allowed twelve months to plead; at the expiration of that time, should the defendant pay to the plaintiff, or confess judgment for one-fifth of the residue of the said debt or demand, he shall be allowed twelve months more to plead; at the expiration of that time, should the defendant pay to the plaintiff or confess judgment for one-half of the residue fo said debt or demand, he shall be allowed twelve months more to plead; at the expiration of that time the plaintiff shall have judgment for the residue of his debt or demand:—Provided, however, That the plaintiff, if required shall file his claim in writing, and if the defendant shall make oath that the whole or any part thereof is not justly due, or that he has a counter demand, all of which he shall particularly set forth by affidavit, then the defendant shall only pay the installment required of what he admits to be due, and the justice shall proceed to try the matters in dispute between the parties; at the expiration of twelve months the defendant shall be allowed time to plead only payment of one-fifth of the amount admitted to be due, and whatever the justice may have found him indebted over and above the same: Provided further, That should the defendant fail to pay or confess judgment for the first or any subsequent installment, then and in that case, the plaintiff shall be entitled to proceed to judgment and execution for such installment: Provided further, That by consent of the plaintiff the defendant may at any time confess judgment for a stipulated sum in full and final discharge of all further demand or liability upon such claim. That all executions on judgments in actions of debt, covenant, assumpsit or account which have been, or shall be issued on judgments heretofore obtained before any magistrate, shall be levied on the property of the defendant and returned without sale; at the expiration of twelve months from such return, execution on all such judgments shall issue for only one-tenth of the amount then due; at the expiration of twelve months from that time for one fifth of the residue, and at the expiration of twelve months from that time for one-fifth of the residue, and at the expiration of twelve months more for one-half of the residue, and at the expiration of twelve months more for the balance of the debt.

Sec. 5. Be it further ordained, That Section 17 of the above entitled ordinance be amended to read as follows: Sec. 17. That the provisions of this ordinance shall not be construed to extend to any debts or demands contracted or penalties incurred since the first day of May, A. D. 1865 or which may hereafter be contracted or incurred except actions founded on any bond, promissory note, bill of exchange, or any other instrument of writing, or parole promise made since the first of May, 1865, in renewal of, or substitution for a contract made prior to first of May, 1865, to the full amount of the principal and interest of a debt existing prior to said day, and without other consideration than such pre-existent debt; and except also actions, suits, or process to revive, continue or enforce any judgment heretofore recovered upon any such bond, promissory note, bill of exchange or other instruments of writing or parol promise as is hereinbefore mentioned.

Sec. 6. I e it further ordained, That this ordinance shall be in force from and after its ratification.

Ticknor and Fields's Publications.

THE ATLANTIC MONTHLY FOR 1868.

Mr. Charles Dickens furnishes an Original Story, in three or four numbers, entitled "George Silverman's Explanation."

Dr. I. I. Hayes, the Arctic Voyager, will contribute a series of papers on "Life in Greenland and the Arctic Regions."

James Parton will continue to furnish articles on cities of the United States, with prominent Industrial and other topics.

Bayard Taylor, who is now in Europe, will contribute regularly papers on "Out-of-the-Way Corners of the Old World."

Ralph Waldo Emerson commences his contributions for the year with an article on "Aspects of Culture," which appears in the January number.

Edward Evesett Hale, author of "The Man without a Country," will contribute frequently through the year.

Edwin P. Whipple will continue his series of admirable articles on English literature.

John Meredith Read, Jr., author of "An Historical Inquiry concerning Henry Hudson," will contribute a series of Historical Articles, of deep general interest.

William J. Stillman, United States Consul in Crete, will furnish a series of papers, giving his experiences and observations during the struggle of the last year or two between the Greeks and Turks.

Among the regular writers for the ATLANTIC, in addition to those already named, are Longfellow, Lowell, Holmes, Whittier, Curtis, Mrs. Stowe, Mrs. Child, Bryant, Agassiz, Hazewell, Trowbridge, Wasson, Mrs. Harriet Prescott Spofford, Higginson, Aldrich, Shanly, Mrs. Diaz, and scores besides of the best writers in the country.

Terms: Single subscription, $4.00 a year; Two copies $7.00; Five copies $16.00; Ten copies, $30.00; Twenty copies, $60.00, and a copy gratis to the person sending the Club of Twenty. Single or specimen numbers, 35 cents.

OUR YOUNG FOLKS FOR 1868.

Mr. Charles Dickens has written expressly for this magazine "A Holiday Romance," which will appear in four parts, each part illustrated by John Gilbert, the greatest of English designers.

Dr. Isaac I. Hayes will finish his already famous Arctic Story, "Cast Away in the Cold."

Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe will continue to write sketches like those which have made her so popular with the readers of OUR YOUNG FOLKS.

The Author of "Leslie Goldthwaite" will furnish a story entitled "When I was a Little Girl."

Mr. J. H. A. Bone will furnish six Historical Articles on very interesting subjects, which will be illustrated with historical accuracy.

The Author of the "Seven Little Sisters," one of the most charming of children's books, will tell "Dame Nature's Stories," explaining many curious facts of animal and vegetable life.

Numerous other writers who are favorites with the readers of OUR YOUNG FOLKS will contribute, such as Mrs. Louise E. Chollet, Mrs. A. M. Diaz, Mrs. Jane G. Austin, Mrs. Helen C. Weeks, T. B. Aldrich, The Author of "Little Prudy," "George Eager," and others.

The illustrations will continue to be the very best that can be obtained from such artists as Darley, Hennessy, Tenniel, Eytinge, Wier, McEnter, Stephens, Waud, Fenn, Hoppin, Fredericks, White, and Lumly. Full-page illustrations will be published every month, and occasional colored supplements will be presented to the subscribers.

It will thus be seen that OUR YOUNG FOLKS for 1868 has something for its patrons in every juvenile department,—Romance, History, Fiction, Fact, Poetry, Prose, Fancy, Science, Music, Art, and Amusement,—and must continue to be, as it now is, a Household Necessity and Delight.

Terms: One copy for twelve months, $2.00; Three copies, $5.00; Five copies, $8.00; Ten copies, $15.00; Twenty copies, $30.00, with an additional copy free to the getter up of the club of Twenty. Single number, 20 cents.

EVERY SATURDAY FOR 1868.

Will contain a Brilliant Serial Story, entitled "FOUL PLAY," by Charles Reade and Dion Boucicault.

THE POSTAGE LAW.

For the convenience of our readers, many of whom are uninformed as to the present postal rates, we extract and prepare the following from the existing regulations as published in the United States Mail.

LETTER POSTAGE—PREPAYMENT.

The law requires the postage on all letters to be prepaid by stamp or stamped envelopes—payment in money being prohibited. All drop letters must also be prepaid. The only letters on which payment is not demanded, are those addressed to the President, or Vice-President or members of Congress, and letters on official business to the chiefs of the Exective Departments of the government, the heads of bureaus and chief clerks, and others invested with the franking privilege.

RATES.

The rates of letter postage is three cents per half ounce, throughout the United States; and three cents for each additional half ounce or fraction thereof. The ten cent Pacific rate is abolished.

The rate of postage on drop letters is two cents per half an ounce or fraction thereof, at all offices where free delivery by carrier is established. Where such free delivery is not established, the rate is one cent.

NEWSPAPER POSTAGE.

The following is the postage on newspapers, when sent from the office of publication, to regular subscribers:

Postage on Daily Papers to subscribers when prepaid quarterly or yearly in advance either at the mailing office or office of delivery, per quarter (three months.)	35 cts.
Six times per week, per quarter,	30 "
For Tri-Weekly, "	15 "
For Semi-Weekly, "	10 "
For Weekly, "	5 "

Weekly Newspapers (one copy only) sent by the publisher to actual subscribers within the the county where printed and puplished, free.

Quarterly Payments.

Quarterly postage cannot be paid for less than three months. If a subscription begins at any other time than the commencement of an official quarter, the postage received by the P. M. must still be entered in his account for that quarter. Subscribers for short terms —exceeding three months, say four or five months—can pay quarterly postage for the actual term of their subscriptions—that is, for one quarter and a third, one quarter and two thirds, &c. The law only requires that at least one quarter's postage shall be prepaid, and not more than one year's postage. Any term between one quarter and one year can therefore be prepaid at proportionate rates. Snbscribers can pay the postage for a fraction of a quarter, at the same rates for a whole quarter, by including the fraction with the next whole quarter, and paying for both at the same time.

Publishers of Newspapers and Periodicals may send to each other from their respective offices of publication, free of postage, one copy of each publication, and may also send to each actual subscriber, inclosed in their publication bills and receipts for the same, free of postage. They may also state on their respective publications, the date when the subscription expires to be written or printed.

Small Papers.

Religious, Educational, and Agricultural Newspapers of small size, issued less frequently than once a week, may be sent in packages to one address at the rate of one cent for each package not exceeding four ounces in weight and an additional charge of one cent is made for each additional four ounces or fraction thereof, the postage to be paid quarterly or yearly, in advance.

Newsdealers.

Newsdealers may send newspapers and periodicals to regular subscribers at the quarterly rates, in the same manner as publishers, and may also receive them from publishers at subscribers rates. In both cases the postage to be prepaid, either at the mailing or delivery office.

Postage on Transient Matter—Books and Circulars.

Books, not over 4 ounces in weight, to one address, 4 cents; over 4 ounces and not over 8 ounces, 8 cents; over 8 ounces, and not over 12 ounces, 12 cents; over 12 ounces, and not over 16 ounces, 16 cents.

Circulars, not exceeding three in number, to one address, 2 cents; over 3, and not over 6, 4 cents; over 6, and not over 9, 6 cents; over 9 and not exceeding 12, 8 cents.

Miscellaneous.

On miscellaneous mailable matter, embracing all pamphlets, occasional publications, transient newspapers, hand-bills and posters, book manuscripts and proofsheets, whether corrected or not, maps and prints, engravings, sheet music, blanks, flexible patterns, samples and sample cards, phonographic paper, letter envelopes, postal envelopes or wrappers, cards, paper, plain or ornamental photographic representations of different types, seeds, cuttings, bulbs, roots, and scions, the postage to be prepaid by stamps, is on one package to one address not over 4 ounces in weight, 2 cents; over 4 ounces, and not over 8 ounces, 4 cents; over 8 ounces, and not over 12 ounces, 6 cents; over 12 ounces, and not over 16 ounces, 8 cents.

How to be Wrapped.

All mail matter not sent at letter rates of postage, embracing books, book manuscripts, proof sheets and other printed matter, and all other mail matter except seeds, must be so wrapped or enveloped with open sides or ends as to enable the postmaster to examine the package without destroying the wrapper; otherwise such packages must be rated with letter postage. No communication, whether in writing or in print, can be sent with any seeds, roots, cuttings or scions, maps, engravings or other matter not printed, except upon the seperate matter, at the established rates.

Where packages of newspapers or periodicals are received at any post office directed to one address and the names of the club of subscribers to which they belong, with the postage for a quarter in advance shall be handed to the postmaster, he shall deliver the same to their respective owners. But this does not apply to weekly newspapers, which circulate free in the county where printed and published.

Pre-payment of Transient Matter.

All transient matter must be prepaid by stamps. But if it comes to the office of delivery without prepayment, or short paid, the unpaid postage must be collected on delivery at double the prepaid rate.

Great neglect exists in the strict quarterly prepayment of postage on printed matter sent to regular subscribers. No such paper should be delivered unless it is either prepaid at the mailing office, or at the delivery office for at least a quarter. If not so prepaid, post-masters must collect postage on each copy as on transient matter. If they fail they will be charged with the full postage due, and in clear cases removed from office for neglect.
